

Town & Country School Non-Discrimination and Civil Rights Policy

Town & Country School is committed to providing all students, employees, and members of the public with a safe and respectful school and workplace environment. The school prohibits discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on real or perceived race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, pregnancy, disability, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, age or any other classification protected by applicable laws.

This prohibition applies to students, employees, vendors and board members in any aspect of the school's programs, including during school hours, extracurricular activities, school-sponsored events, or outside of school hours if the conduct affects the education or working environment.

Town & Country School's Non-Discrimination Statement

Town & Country School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, pregnancy, disability, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, age or any other classification protected by applicable law with respect to employment, programs and activities.

The school prohibits discrimination. The school also prohibits retaliation, intimidation, threats, or coercion against any individual who complains about discrimination or participates in the district's discrimination complaint process.
